Explanatory Note

(This does not form part of the notification, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

The Inspectors of Factories and Boilers are implementing various provisions of the Factories Act including section 48 relating to creches. At present the Inspectress of Factories for Women Welfare are enforcing provisions under the Maternity Benefit Act alone. As the Welfare of the Women workers and the care of children are closely interlinked, it is considered appropriate to entrust the Inspectress of Factories for Women Welfare also with the power to inspect the creches in factories as the Inspector of Factories and Boilers may not get enough time to concentrate on these matters. Government consider that the provisions of section 48 of Factories Act relating to creches may also be entrusted to Inspectresses of Factories for Women Welfare. The above notification is to achieve this purpose.
